

Graettinger Lauded For 15-Year Aid To Village

Is Honored At Meeting of City Leaders

Editor Emeritus
To Open Bridge For Which He Fought

R. F. "Phat" Graettinger, editor emeritus of The Desert Sun, was honored guest at Mayor Florian Boyd's Coordinating Council meeting yesterday, and was publicly eulogized for the work he did in the betterment of the community.

Using the columns of The Desert Sun, Graettinger for 15 years has bent his efforts for the orderly development of the community.

After his introduction to the more than 40 persons at the meeting, Graettinger said that he "liked all the things the Mayor said about me, but I did have a selfish reason for what I did."

"MOST OF THE TIME I would carry on these fights for the betterment of the community to make news for the newspaper," Graettinger added, "and it has always been my belief that in order to have a newspaper prosper in a community, the community has to prosper. And if both of these prosper, I in turn prosper."

"It is widely known," said Graettinger, "that in order to get anywhere you must have a good vehicle—well, mine was The Desert Sun."

He successfully headed campaigns for uniform street signs, benches on Palm Canyon Drive, widening of Indian Avenue, palm trees on Palm Canyon Drive, Western Week, street lights and many others. Of course, his "batting average" is not perfect, for one campaign has yet to become a reality, a unified code for displaying street numbers on homes and buildings. But, even today, the problem is still brought before some local body for discussion.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, Graettinger will dedicate and open the new Tahquitz River bridge on South Palm Canyon Drive, while dignitaries from all over the county, as well as Villagers, watch.

Expected to be present will be Supervisor George Berkeley, County Road Commissioner A. C. Keith, members of the city council, city administrators, Chamber of Commerce, the Palm Springs High School Band and the Palm Springs Debs.

The Debs will form a human ribbon, possibly the first time that it has ever been done, and the ribbon will be broken by Graettinger.

Soviet Election Observers Due In U.S. Monday

WASHINGTON, 11—The State Department today announced a four-city tour for a group of Russians invited here to observe the U.S. political campaign and election.

The team of three Russians will arrive in New York Monday. They will also visit Washington, Louisville and Los Angeles during the first week of their tour. The remainder of the itinerary will be arranged at the request of the visitors.

The State Department last month invited Russia and four of her satellites—Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary and Romania—to send representatives to the United States to watch the American election process first hand. The United States offered to foot the bill.

The Soviet Union and Romania accepted the invitation, but Poland, Czechoslovakia and Hungary declined. Officials said the Russian and Romanian observers will travel separately while in the United States.

Young Delegates Address Lions

Boys and Girls State and National State Delegates addressed Palm Springs Lions Thursday, giving their reports on activities at these citizenship-building gatherings.

John Connell, representing the American Legion, introduced the speakers, with Joe Henderson, Lions Club president, presiding.

Addressing the club was Peggy Schuler who not only attended Girls State at Sacramento but also went to the National Girls gathering at Washington, D.C.

Other speakers were the four boys who attended Boys State at Sacramento. They were Roger Williams, Jr., Alan Miller, Jerry Greenfield, and Gary Waters.

The students sent to Sacramento were sponsored by the American Legion, Lions Club and other service clubs of the city.

R. F. "PHAT" GRAETTINGER, editor emeritus of The Desert Sun, on Monday will see a long campaign successfully concluded, when he dedicates the new Tahquitz River bridge on South Palm Canyon Drive. ## Coordinating Council Gives Roundup of Civic Activities

At the Mayor's Coordinating Council meeting held at Hotel the Oasis yesterday afternoon, more than 40 persons were present to announce coming organizational events and make suggestions for possible future legislation by the city.

Representatives from every major organization in the city were present at the meeting, and discussions ran the gamut from beautification to civic improvements.

Discussions taken up during the meeting included:

ANNEXATION: Stewart Williams, in commenting on the control of development of the southern approach to the city, asked if anything could be done about the construction of varied classes of C-1 and M-1 uses. The city administration reported that any action of annexation had to be started by the land owners and residents of sections 29 and 30.

STEAK FRY: The president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Bill Bronstein, announced that the JayCee "Get Acquainted" Fifth Annual Steak Fry would be held tonight, Saturday, and tickets were available at the Desert Inn Mashie Course.

YOUTH CENTER: The Palm Springs Youth Center will hold an open house for the community on Oct. 30. Construction of the new addition has been completed, according to director Carl Plate.

REFERRAL BUREAU: The re-opening of the referral bureau at the Chamber of Commerce office was announced this week. According to Adele Colgan, its purpose is to refer visitors to Palm Springs to possible hotel accommodations. Local hotels may list vacancies with the bureau by calling 9151 or the Chamber of Commerce.

SOCIAL WELFARE: Mayor Boyd reported that the Social Welfare Commission is now actively engaged in looking into charity drives that are annually put on in the Village every year. "Most of the drives are good, and will get the blessing of the Commission, but if anyone hears of a non-local charity operating without the consent of the commission, report it to the city offices or a member of the commission," said Boyd.

BEAUTIFICATION: Saul Ruskin, legal advisor for the Hotel and Apartment Association, asked the Coordinating Council to discuss the establishing of a special beautification committee that will be empowered to approach businessmen and residents to keep the city beautiful. The proposed committee would not have enforcement power, but could work to make local people conscious of beautifying the town. He also said that the Commission could have a paid secretary that would help in keeping it active.

SIGN ORDINANCE: Councilwoman Ruth Hardy reported to the Coordinating Council that the citizens committee and the city council would meet next week to finish the new sign ordinance. She told the persons present that businessmen in Palm Springs did not need the biggest sign to do business; "in fact, the bigger the sign the less business, and the smaller the sign the more business," she said. She appealed to anyone whom the ordinance might effect by saying that she hoped it would be realized that it was for the betterment of the community.

STREET LIGHTS: City engineer Frank Hamerschlag said that the new color corrective vapor lights for Indian Avenue would be in use within the next 30 days. Construction crews are now excavating for the poles. The lights, which will all be on the east side of the street, will be on long poles and directed at the center of the street.

LITTERBUGS: The City of Palm Springs will soon have signs warning litterbugs of fines for violators. Police now are enforcing the litter ordinance, and if anyone is seen throwing trash from a automobile, officers will have the violator return and pick it up. Flagrant violators will be cited.

GOLF COURSE: Harry Paisley of the Hotel and Apartment Association asked the Coordinating Council not to forget the possibility of a municipal golf course. "It is something that is badly needed in Palm Springs," said Paisley.

Hurry, Hurry; Most Beautiful Snake in World

CHICAGO, 11—A beautiful blue eyed blonde is visiting Chicago's Brookfield Zoo this month. Not only is she beautiful but she is 10 feet long.

Ralph Bean, director of the zoo, urged everyone in the area to hustle out and take a look at what he describes as "the most beautiful snake in the world."

The 10-foot white python is on loan to the zoo for 30 days. The non-poisonous reptile is not an albino but actually has white pigment cells, according to its owner, Peter Rhyner of Switzerland. It was captured in India.

Police Alert Village to Hot Check Artist

Palm Springs police have alerted all businessmen and hotel operators in the Village to be on the lookout for an alleged bad check passer who is believed to be in this area this week.

The man, known as Russell N. Sheffler, is 36 years old, white, male, American, 5 foot 11 inches in height, and weighing 175 pounds. He drives a 1956 Cadillac, four-door sedan, 2-tone dark blue top and light blue body.

Sgt. John Herrera and Robert White were notified by Santa Monica detectives that the man is believed to be in this area. Sheffler reportedly is an ex-convict out of San Quentin and is wanted on seven counts of bad checks.

Police said his mode of operation is passing checks for $500 or $1,000, and usually in used car lots or banks.

Now It's Toothsome Whaleburgers That May Come From Antibiotics

WASHINGTON, 11—Whaleburgers could become as American as hot dogs in a few years.

Whales are so big it takes a long time to get them refrigerated. As a result, most of the meat in the past has spoiled before they are cut up and stored in ships' holds.

But a team of Canadian researchers contend tests show whale steaks can be kept fresh for long periods by using antibiotics, such as chlortetracycline.

Fake Woman Robs Hospital Of $40,000

Gunman Seizes Cash and Checks Awaiting Pickup

BOSTON, 11—A gunman dressed as a woman and speaking in a falsetto voice robbed a famous maternity hospital here today of $40,000 in cash and checks.

The gunman ordered two women clerks and a paymaster to get down on the floor while he grabbed the cash from a wall safe at Boston Lying-in Hospital.

Paymaster James Borland said the gunman demanded to know "where is the Brink's pickup?" referring to cash held for an armored car.

The handit was directed to an open safe where he grabbed $2,708 in cash and $40,659 in checks.

Suez U.S. Pilots Ready to Quit In Payday Row

CAIRO, Egypt, 11—Some of the 17 American pilots who flew here recently to work for Egypt's U.S. Canal authority are ready to pack their bags and go home because of pay disputes, their spokesman said today.

Capt. Elmo Chester Holland, 43, of Newport Beach, Calif., told United Press that some may quit within the next few days.

ALTHOUGH it was not definitely known how many of the U.S. pilots will leave, it was believed a full scale American walkout may come this weekend when the first payday falls due.

"As far as I'm concerned, there was misrepresentation by the Egyptian authorities over finances and a number of other Americans have had the same experience," Holland said.

Meeting Monday To Honor Jackie

Jacqueline Cochran Odium, Republican candidate for Congress, will be honored at an hour-long luncheon meeting here Monday noon at the Doll House.

All campaign workers, together with interested persons, are invited to attend, and the luncheon will be in the form of a question and answer discussion meeting.

Cost will be $1, with hamburger sandwiches to be served buffet style to ensure holding the meeting time to one hour.

THE WEATHER

Desert area forecast: Generally clear today through Sunday. Slightly warmer afternoons. High today 80-85 upper valleys, 88-96 lower valleys. High here yesterday was 89, and low was 49.

ORCHESTRA SCORES claim the interest of Harry Tomlinson, who heads the Palm Springs Civic Chorus, and is conductor of the Palm Springs Civic Orchestra, and Alfred Vertchamps, internationally famous violinist and conductor, who will be associate conductor. A full musical program is planned for the Village for the 1956-57 season, under the sponsorship of the Palm Springs Music Society. (Desert Sun Photo).

Palm Springs Music Society Plans Widened Entertainment This Year

Community life in Palm Springs and the desert area will be enriched in entertainment during the 1956-57 season by increased activity in the field of music, under the sponsorship of the Palm Springs Music Society, J. Blake Field, president.

Four fields of endeavor will be sponsored, the Palm Springs Civic Chorus, Palm Springs Civic Orchestra, Artist Series, and Festival.

Officers for the Society will be opened Monday at 174 North Palm Canyon Drive, Patio Shop, No. 9, The Center.

OFFICERS AND directors this year besides Field are: Mrs. Ward J. Risvold, secretary; G. H. Mitchell, treasurer; Mrs. Charles E. Dant, Muriel E. Fulton, William A. Mason, Mrs. Culver Nichols, Dr. B. H. Poliak, A. R. Simon and Mrs. William C. Tackett.

The Civic Chorus has been active here during the past six years, under the direction of Harry Tomlinson, founder. Concerts scheduled for this year by the Chorus are: The Mozart Requiem, opening the season on Nov. 29; "The Messiah," Handel; "Elijah," Mendelssohn; Brahms Requiem, and on Palm Sunday, The Passion according to St. John.

Plans for a Palm Springs Civic Orchestra have met with enthusiasm. Alfred Vertchamps, internationally famed violinist, chamber music player and conductor, will join Conductor Tomlinson as associate conductor, and Jascha Veissi, viola artist, ensemble player and conductor, will appear as guest conductor.

SIX "CONCERTS INTIME" by noted string and woodwind ensemble groups are scheduled for January, February and March, opening with Jascha Veissi on Jan. 13. The Schoenfeld Trio—Alice Schoenfeld, violin, Eleanore Schoenfeld, Cello, and Siegfried Schultze, piano, and Martin Ruderman, flute, guest artist, and the youthful Trojan String Quartet, recently returned from Rome, Italy, where they took part in an international Festival of ensemble music, will be heard in March.

The concerts will be given at Ca-huilla School and the Jewish Community Center as heretofore.

The Palm Springs Festival, listed for April, will feature the Civic Chorus, Civic Orchestra and soloists.

GRACE DENTON, well known as a concert manager in New York, Detroit, Chicago and in California, has accepted the position

Reds Warn Poles They'll Crush Any Revolt Attempt

LONDON, 11—Soviet Communist boss N. S. Khrushchev has warned Poles seeking independence from the Kremlin that "we will crush with force" any attempt at a revolt, the Swedish newspaper, Expressen, reported today.

Derrick M. Winter, the correspondent who "broke the story" of Khrushchev's blitz mission to Warsaw, told Expressen the Russian leader "lost control of himself . . . during a meeting with representatives of the Polish Politburo."

"I AM GOING to show you what the road to socialism looks like!" Winter quoted Khrushchev as saying. "If you don't obey, we will crush with force any attempt to revolt."

At the Politburo meeting, Winter said, Khrushchev refused to shake hands with Wladyslaw Gomulka, the Communist leader purged eight years ago for Titoism who Friday reemerged as "Poland's strong man."

THE RESTORATION of Gomulka is believed to be the reason for Khrushchev's dramatic dash to Red Warsaw Friday. Soviet Defense Minister G. K. Zhukov also has been reported in Poland.

Winter said an "opposition Communist" told him that any attempt by Khrushchev to impose a "harsh line" on Poland would result in anti-Russian rioting throughout the country "with the support of us Communists."

'Friendly' Tiff Ends in Stab Wound for Youth

An argument yesterday ended with 22-year-old L. D. Hunt being treated for a stab wound at Desert Hospital.

Police were called by the Desert Hospital to investigate the stabbing after Hunt was brought in for treatment. He had been stabbed in the left thigh by a 19-year-old youth during what was reported to be a "friendly argument." No complaint was signed by the victim.

According to the hospital Hunt was treated and sent home last night, but returned for further treatment today.

Gomulka Gets Top Job Over Soviet Protest

Soldiers Occupy Radio Station As Disclosure Is Made

WARSAW, 11—Wladyslaw Gomulka today was named first secretary of the Polish Communist Party over the opposition of Moscow.

The announcement was made over Radio Warsaw. The station was occupied by troops loyal to Gomulka.

Simultaneously, Stefan Straszewski, deputy member of the Polish Central Committee, told a mass meeting of 10,000 workers and students that Russia is moving troops into Poland from East Germany.

TROOP UNITS in Polish uniform took over both the transmitter and the downtown headquarters of Radio Warsaw this afternoon shortly after Soviet Communist Chief Nikita Khrushchev left for Moscow after a secret, 24-hour blitz trip to Warsaw to try to slow Poland's rush toward liberalization and de-stalinization.

Straszewski told the meeting: "Gomulka is the new first secretary of the central committee."

Before today, Edward Ochab, generally considered a supporter of the old policies, had been first secretary.

STASZEWSKI DISCLOSED the change in a great rally in Warsaw Polytechnic Institute after today's session of the Central Committee.

At the Central Committee meeting, Gomulka spoke for two and a half hours. Members described it as a brilliant oration on Poland's problems.

Straszewski, who is secretary of the Warsaw Committee of the Communist Party as well as a deputy in the nationwide Central Committee, said the Central Committee received news today about Soviet troops movements.

HE SAID THE Soviet army units had been withdrawn from East Germany and that units of the Polish army were taking up positions in the vicinity of Warsaw.

Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, the Soviet army leader who became Poland's defense minister after the war, was asked about this at the meeting.

"The units are coming back from maneuvers," Staszewski quoted Rokossovsky.

"There was great laughter in the Central Committee," Straszewski said.

Earlier today, thousands of factory workers went on sitdown strikes demanding that Russia keep hands off Polish internal affairs.

JayCees' Steak Fry Tonight

A capacity crowd is expected to attend the annual Steak Fry at the Desert Inn Mashie Course tonight, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The event this year will conclude Get Acquainted Week in the Village.

The public is invited to attend, according to JayCee President Bill Bronstein.

CVAPC to Talk Sanitary District

Formation of a Unified Sanitary District in the desert area will be the chief topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee at the Farmhouse in Cathedral City according to President Ted Smith.

The meeting, a dinner session, will start at 6:30 p.m.

The Good...and...The Bad

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

The week's good and bad news on the international balance sheet:

PALESTINE

The Palestine area replaced the Suez Canal Zone as the No. 1 danger spot in the Middle East.

Heavy raids by Israeli forces on frontier posts in Jordan increased tension between Israel and the Arab countries. Israel said its attacks were made in retaliation for border raids by Jordanian guerrillas.

Iraq promised to send troops to reinforce Jordan if needed to meet Israeli aggression. Egypt said that it would regard an attack on any Arab country as an attack on Egypt itself.

Great Britain, pledged to defend Jordan if Israel attacked, was reported sending its newest supersonic jet fighter planes to reinforce Royal Air Force units stationed in that country.

London said that any of the new jets sent to Jordan would be merely on training flights. But dispatches from Jordan said the planes were arriving — and were ready for action.

In Washington, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles gave a reminder that President Eisenhower had expressed determination last April to aid any victim of aggression in the Middle East.

SUEZ

British Prime Minister Anthony Eden and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd flew to Paris to discuss the Suez situation with French Premier Guy Mollet and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau.

A joint communique issued after their discussions intimated that it would be up to Egypt to make any proposals which might lead to any new negotiations on the Suez dispute.

Reports in London, Paris and Cairo indicated that Egypt might make the proposals, and that Britain, France and Egypt were likely to meet in Geneva, Switzerland, in the next two weeks to discuss them.

Stevenson Calls Ike Untruthful in Foreign Affairs

CINCINNATI — Adlai E. Stevenson today chided President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles as derelict and untruthful in their conduct of foreign affairs, particularly in the Suez Canal crisis.

The Democratic presidential candidate waited for a long time to go after the administration on the Suez and explained to a highly responsive audience of about 4,000 people here Friday night that he did so only because Mr. Eisenhower, himself, introduced the subject into the campaign "in a highly misleading way."

The Democratic candidate spelled out his foreign policy case against the Republicans in detail, bluntly blaming the President and his secretary of state for "misleading" the American public on the general foreign situation and the Suez in particular.

'Democrats Only' Splurge Slated On TV Tonight

WASHINGTON — Top Democrats will strut their stuff on television tonight. But the all-star program will be private for the party faithful.

The show—which will feature speeches by former-President Truman and 1956 Democratic standard-bearer Adlai E. Stevenson and Estes Kefauver—will be transmitted to Democratic dinners around the country by means of a closed television circuit.

Funds from the dinners will go into Democratic coffers to help pay campaign expenses.

Mr. Truman will speak at a dinner here. Stevenson will talk in Chicago and Kefauver in Los Angeles. Other top speakers will include Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.).

Top television and movie stars also will appear on the program.

New Hearing Set On Golfway Road

Riverside county supervisors Monday will continue a public hearing on the application of Tamarisk Country Club to have a county road running through the club's golf course abandoned.

FIRST FALL MEETING of the Cathedral City Senior Woman's Club was held Wednesday morning, with 37 members present. Four Junior Woman's Club members were guests. Officers of the club discussing future plans are, left to right, seated, Madeline Gallarini, president; Hazel Nachant, second vice president; Edna Cobb, immediate past president, and Francis Cunningham, treasurer. Standing, Tiny Henry, auditor; Alice Hewitson, parliamentarian; Alpha May Larson, corresponding secretary, and Margaret Davidson, recording secretary. (Desert Sun Photo).

Proposition No. 1 Given Support by Counties, Cities

The following Boards of County Supervisors have officially endorsed Proposition No. 1 on the November ballot: Alameda, Amador, Contra Costa, Glenn, Imperial, Kern, Lassen, Los Angeles, Merced, Monterey, Plumas, Sacramento, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Francisco, San Joaquin, San Luis Obispo, Solano, Sonoma, Tuolumne, Ventura, El Dorado, Stanislaus, Colusa, Kings, Mariposa, Mendocino, Siskiyou, Tulare, Del Norte, Marin, Placer, Butte.

In addition the City Councils of the following cities have officially put their stamp of approval upon Proposition No. 1: Inglewood, Los Angeles, Jackson, Orland, Redwood City, Richmond, Santa Rosa, Sutter Creek, Vallejo, Willows, Paso Robles, San Bruno, Sonoma, San Diego, Sacramento, Susanville, San Mateo, Sonoma, Oroville, Palm Springs.

The above information has been received by G. K. Sanborn, who is a member of the American Legion's statewide Farm and Home Committee of 1,000. "This Bond Issue in the amount of $500,000,000 to continue a program well tested by 35 years of efficient operation, will never cost the taxpayer anything because the California Veteran pays the entire cost of redemption and administration," said Sanborn.

"Furthermore," Sanborn continued, "the voting public may be quite sure that when our California Legislature unanimously approves a measure, and when the people's county and city representatives unanimously approve, as reflected above, there can be no valid opposition to support of our CAL-VET program."

"And," Sanborn went on, "we believe the most important facet of this CAL-VET program is the fact it puts Veterans into their own homes where they become a tax-paying member of their community and become fully cognizant of their responsibilities as citizens. And all of this at the Veteran's own expense."

The interest rate to the Veteran is only three per cent instead of three and one-half per cent as previously reported.

Scouting Activities in Village District Started for Fall; Court of Honor Set

Palm Springs District Committee of the Boy Scouts has started its fall Scouting program, with all troops reporting increased interest.

Ken Rucker has taken over the leadership of Troop 81, with Marion Woody as Explorer advisor, and other Troop reports indicate the following: More vacancies exist in 77, which is under Scoutmaster Walt Pagan; 27 boys have registered in Troop 39; Troop 118 has started its season successfully, under Tony Biavasci, as has the Elks sponsored Pack 80 under Bill Alcorn.

A new troop is organized in North Palm Springs, sponsored by the Fire Department, with Filippo Tripepi as Scoutmaster.

SCOUTERS are reminded of a University of Scouting session to be held at the University of California in Riverside on Saturday, Oct. 27, from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Registration is requested by Oct. 22.

The local Court of Honor is scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 1, at 6:30 p.m. in the American Legion hall. Awards will be presented. Refreshments will be served.

Local Scouting officials who may be contacted for additional information concerning the Scouting program are:

Five Hundred Hear Democratic Chairman Paul Butler Praise Saund

"The election of Judge Saund to Congress would help to rectify the errors made by the Eisenhower-Benson regime in refusing to give adequate price supports to farm products while providing enormous subsidies to big business; airplane lines, railroads, newspapers and industrial firms, in the form of tax benefits," declared Democratic National Committee Chairman Paul Butler at a $5 plate dinner at Imperial County Fair Grounds honoring Judge, D. S. Saund.

More than 500 attended the dinner and rally. "I am here for two reasons," Butler stated, "First, to help answer charges made by a certain lady that 'Saund lacks stature in his own party,' and secondly, because he has proved himself an excellent campaigner and the chances of his election are excellent. Mrs. Odlum is worried. She would not have called Joe Martin to Riverside if she wasn't."

Butler brought greetings to Saund from Sam Rayburn, Speaker of the House. "Tell Saund," Butler quoted, "I look forward eagerly to his inclusion in the 85th Congress."

Butler stated that the "decline in farm income under Eisenhower and Benson is endangering our entire economy" and that "the election of Saund will help to rectify the bungling of the Republicans of the farm surplus."

Judge Saund also spoke at length concerning his support of 90 per cent of parity price with 100 per cent at the market place, plus extension of supports to perishables, including marketing and crop agreements. He added that he wanted to do something about the "fast disappearing early fruit and vegetable business; being destroyed by cheaper produced Mexican imports."

MRS. GERALDINE RUSSELL, mother of Jane Russell, motion picture star, will speak at the Community Church, for the Missionary Society, at 7:30 p.m., Monday. Mrs. Russell, outstanding Christian teacher and speaker, is pictured above, in front of the Chapel built by her daughter and four sons on the spacious grounds surrounding her home in Van Nuys. She calls her home "The Chapel." Churchmen and visitors from many lands have visited this lovely modern edifice.

Torch Here Sets High School Fire

A fence fire in back of the Palm Springs High School was quickly brought under control by local firemen yesterday afternoon.

The fire was started when workmen were using an acetylene torch, and sparks caught the grass on fire and it spread to the fence. Estimated amount of damage was set at $100 by Fire Captain Chet Goff.

WHERE IS MR. ROGERS?

The Old Timers Picnic last Fall was such a success that it is going to become an annual event. It will be held again this year at Tamarisk Park—on Nov. 24. Mrs. Melba Bennett heads the committee which is already at work on the program.

The committee has decided that it would be quite fitting on this occasion to honor the first white child born in Palm Springs. They have dug into the past and come up with the information that the first white child born here was a boy named Rogers. They don't know his first name and have no idea what has become of him. He must be a pretty good-sized fellow by this time.

In the hope that he may be found somewhere in this broad land, the Old Timers committee has asked The Desert Sun to help find Mr. Rogers. We have readers in almost every part of the country so perhaps if the word is passed around enough that Palm Springs is looking for Mr. Rogers he may turn up, with the evidence that he's our first citizen.

Please come forward Mr. Rogers and let us have some word from you. The citizens of Palm Springs who number about 20,000 these days would like to honor you!

Welcome Brewers!

This weekend the Southern California Brewers' Association is meeting at El Mirador hotel. On behalf of the citizens of Palm Springs, The Desert Sun bids these visitors welcome and hopes that their stay here is such an enjoyable one that they will come back and see us often.

This group is one of many which has joined in the program of the California State Chamber of Commerce to eliminate the disgraceful litter along the state's highways. It is not, of course, the fault of the manufacturers of beer or soft drinks — or anything that comes wrapped in a package — that people throw such containers and wrappers from their car windows onto the roadsides. They realize, however, that such thoughtlessness on the part of many people is harmful to their products and the natural beauty of the Golden State.

The suggestion has been made—and we believe it to be a good one — that manufacturers place some reminder on their packages that cans and wrappers should not be thrown from their car windows. If people are reminded often enough the practice might be reduced considerably. Perhaps the Brewers' Association will be giving the subject some consideration at their meeting here this weekend. Their help will be appreciated.

Everyone can help reduce the habit of throwing things on our streets and highways. I was standing on Palm Canyon Drive in front of the Bank of America yesterday and noticed a very nice looking young woman throw her candy wrapper on the sidewalk. While she looked on I picked it up and put it into my pocket. She looked rather ashamed as I passed on—and I rather think that she may take the wrapper home herself next time.

Everyone CAN help in some way to reduce the disgraceful littering of our streets, sidewalks and roadsides.

BARKING UP WRONG TREE
(Tazewell, Tenn., Claiborne Progress)

We think that there are too many politicians in our country, state and nation who are barking up the wrong tree when they appeal solely to the immediate self interest of voters. Thinking people understand that government money comes from somebody's taxes. They also know that individual rights and liberties are too precious to be traded for the Esau's pottage of temporary government favors.

"OLD TIMER"

Man, history tells us, has been measuring time ever since the beginning of it. The early cave man would count off the hours by clubbing his wife on the head and then feeling the lumps. It was far from accurate but the only thing waiting for a cave man was a hungry Tyrannosaurus and they didn't care if he was late or early.
Eventually the Sundial was invented and after that came the Graduated Candle, the Egyptian Water Clock, the Hourglass, the Spring-wound Clock and finally the device that we all use today to find out what the hour is. The Television Set.

'I Can't Make 'Em Stick'

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

Monday I'll have
My day in the sun,
Doubtless because of My days on THE SUN.

But I am confronted with a problem. What do you do when dedicating a bridge or a highway?
There's traffic piled up, impatient to get going, ready to step on the gas and move.
So, I suppose, you just cut the ribbon and then duck and run like hell.

EDDIE DAVIDSON is taking a rest from the hotel business—but not resting. He planned to take a vacation this winter after his hotel endeavors here and on Catalina Island. But Irwin Schuman grabbed him and now he's bending those talents he had for pleasing the public by being public relations man for the Chi Chi.
And, speaking of the Chi Chi, I enjoyed the Topnotchers there the other night, but especially liked the drum break they gave Bill Alexander of the Chi Chi combo which has for years been dealing out delightful music.

Alexander did not foul the assignment. He made with the drumsticks and I am not referring to my favorite portion of the Thanksgiving fowl.

Week, November 1. That's the logical place. Where they had all of those big crowds last season.

It's a pleasant part of Palm Springs life.
Chamber of Commerce word-painters certainly do not use the soft pedal. Coming along Highway 99 you see signboards which proclaim Clear-Sky Beaumont, Beautiful Banning, (there are some as yet at Cabazon.)

BUT THE PLACE where the public relations man really went to town is that India sign just before the Highway 111 junction.

Now, I like India. Think it is a good town. But I believe the p.r. man really pulled out all of the stops when he proclaimed:
"Fabulous, enchanting, exotic India."
Jimmy Cooper, you have been outdone.

WELL, LOS ANGELES is more minutes closer to Palm Springs.
The Colton Freeway, or at least a large portion of it, was opened this week.

The signs have been up for several days like "use right lane for San Bernardino," and for the various ramps.

And they are going like crazy
on the freeway in West Covina,
the concrete is going in fast.

Soon we'll be in Los Angeles before saying good-bye to the desert.

SEE WHERE Los Angeles is in the throes of redistricting its 15 councilmanic districts.
Boundaries are going to be changed to conform with the growth and shift in population.

Each district is going to be as near the same size, population-wise, as possible.
Heard of something along that line as applied to Palm Springs, too, some time ago.

From Melbourne, Australia,
comes this wise remark:
"A highbrow is a person who has the patience to sit through something which would make him a lowbrow if he didn't."

INEZ ROBB:

Push-Button Steering on Way

DETROIT—The 1957 automobile is a thing of push-button beauty.
All Homo Q. Sapiens has to do to make it work is steer. But don't think the American motor industry isn't dreaming of eliminating Homo Q. and his hot little hands from the steering wheel!

Push-button steering is one of those things that preoccupies the dreams of Detroit, but about which it doesn't want to talk too much. But within a decade, give or take a few years, that maniacal, irrational and capricious fiend-in-human form behind the wheel of the OTHER car may be eliminated, and life on the open road in American may become a breeze.

OF COURSE, IT will eliminate you, too. Human error, that is.
Harry Chesebrough, in charge of product planning at Chrysler, foresees future highways with an electronic system of guidance where the so-called driver gets in tune with the infinite, and that's that. No more death on the highway is a possibility.

"Push-button driving is coming,
but we can't talk about that now," smiles Ford Vice-President George W. Walker. "If guided missile experts can get a rocket into outer space, we should be able to steer a 'guided car' to Chicago without human hands."
The industry talks wistfully of automatic pilot devices, projected beams and radar as a means of eliminating Mr. and Mrs. Sapiens and their lethal hands on a steering wheel.

AND WHEN I complained bitterly about the temptation to speed in today's cars caused by the ever-increasing horsepower under the hood, the industry patted me on my little, pointed head and had an explanation for that, too.

According to the industry, 50 per cent of the advertised horsepower built into a car is needed to operate all the luxury features Americans demand in automobiles, such as radios, pushbutton windows, additional lighting, heater, power steering, power brakes and air conditioning, plus the road friction a car develops in transit. That leaves only 50 per cent of the hypoed horsepower with which to endanger life and limb.

AND THAT LEADS right into something an auto tycoon said that puzzled me for a minute.

"A mass-produced automobile is really a custom job," he declared.
"You mean the buyer still has to purchase all the necessary luxuries like radio, heater, et al?"
I asked.

"Well, yes," he said and had the grace to blush.
And don't think that television isn't available for the customer who's really loaded. But, so far, mercifully confined to the back seat. But wait until Homo Q.
human hands and the steering wheel are eliminated, and Jackie Gleason will be up front, too.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Ex-

being awakened by his baby's pre-dawn cries:

"I got out of bed with a sudden urge to kill. I just tried to kill them the fastest way I could."

TOKYO—Gen. Randolph Pate,

disagreeing with Brig. Gen. David F. O'Neill who ordered families of combat marines out of Japan:

"I don't agree with General made a mistake."

NEW YORK—Acress June Hav-

That old devil, "Mr. Municipal Golf Course," is rearing its head again.

We believe that as the season goes on the topic will wax hotter and hotter and with sides chosen for and against the proposition again, but this time I believe there will be plenty of steam behind a heavy roll to bring about just such a golf course.

Tuesday the Hotel and Apartment Association will meet, and although this organization never dropped the idea, the cudgel will be taken up again. At least it will be on the agenda for discussion.

Harry Paisley, president of the hotel group, pointed out this morning that opponents to a municipal golf course feel that the Hotel and Apartment Association should buy the ground and build the golf course.

"I can only say this in opposition, that the hotel business in Palm Springs is the major industry. The more people we bring to Palm Springs the more will Palm Springs profit. Everybody in every walk of life here will profit. Property values undoubtedly will go up."

WELL, BEN SHEARER, we will always be good friends but I'm going to continue to go with the need of a municipal golf course. All of the courses I've written about in the past that were to be started sometime this year are private in category.

While we are on this subject,
George Gannon and Frank Bo-gert both informed me that a decision on what to do with the 333 acres owned by the Capital Investment Company may be made within the next 30 days. Gannon is of the opinion that nothing else than a golf course is indicated, with home development along the fairways. This location is on Section 29, and if a course is decided upon it will be only three and one-half miles from Bullocks department store.

CHANGE OF TEMPO is about right at this juncture in the column 'cause I cannot help but pass on the laugh sent in the form of a postcard by Mr. Frank
"Satire" Scully. He writes:

"Dear Bill: Yours is not the only column in The Desert Sun that's Unedited. I stand in awe at the consistency shown by the church page editor who week after week lists: "St. Theresa Catholic Church—Saturday Evening Devotions Monday at 8 p.m. Who preaches the sermon? Joshua who made the sun stand still?"
Your devoted public, Frank Scully."

My dear Frank: Thanks. This has all been corrected. And knowing how avidly you read the church page please let us know if carried in this column such notices would lend ecclesiastical charm to these daily pieces?

HAD MY FIRST disastrous contact with radio the other night at the Racquet Club but in the end we learned how to recite one line of Shakespeare from a great master of the Bard by the name of Edmund Goulding. Goulding, as everyone knows, is without a doubt one of the foremost motion picture directors of our time. His life reads like a story out of Horatio Alger book. The other gentleman who helped to coach this line, and I goofed, was none other than Richard Greene the TV Robin Hood.

Both are definitely English and great Englishmen they are too.
In the middle and ribbing me no end was Mr. Charles Farrell. I balked at the word "bay" and instated that for the modern listener only one in every 10 persons would know the definition. Rather, said the newspaperman in me, would I use the word roar or wall but that was to no avail and I gave up, thanks to Jerry Nath-anson, who decided that I was a lost cause where Shakespeare is concerned.

This tall, handsome Greene who spends 11 months of each year
"shooting" TV pictures just outside of London came to Palm Springs for part of his month's holiday.

THE DISASTER referred to above regarding my contact with radio revolved around a recalcitrant recording machine. After 30 minutes of taping the show our technician informed us that it was "no dice." Have to do the show over again. Well, I presume it can happen in radio but it can never happen in newspaper work. Once published, error or not, it's just too bad.

Greene and Goulding, two charming persons, were most gracious and Palm Springs should have more such visitors in our midst. It makes life worth living to meet with such men, both great successes, who have never lost the common touch.

GOT A KICK OUT of a note left on my desk by Ruth Nelson who brags about the fact that her husband serves her breakfast in bed. Now Jack Nelson, the model hubby, is quite the unusual guy remembering that both have been married for many, many years.
The note read: "Dear Ruthie:
Every day in every way your Sanka is getting less and less and so is your fruit juice."

This is one bad example to set for wives I'm thinking, and some hubby may clobber me when I'm not looking for carrying the item in my column. I really don't know what Sam Janis will do when he reads it either—he's so big, you know.

Sal Maglie Envis Dancing Legs

When Mickey Mantle belted that second World Series homer, stage star Frank Fay, watching TV at the Lambs Club, yelled out,
"There he is—the Frank Fay of baseball!" . . . Sal Maglie, on behalfing Ann Miller's legs at a TV rehearsal, moaned, "If I had those, I'd be good another 10 years."

Arthur Godfrey's talent-sifters wouldn't even listen to Elvis Presley not too long ago . . .
In Rome they mention the Texan with four Cadillac—one for each direction.

I've heard that the dolls aren't supposed to check their furs in the fancy joints — it's allegedly uncliché—but I saw the Duchess of Windsor fling her black diamond mink cape at the checkroom gal at the Colony . . . so I reckon it's accepted now.

Sure, and there were such celebrities there—the Duke, Robt.
Young, Judy Garland and Sid
Luft, the Wm. Paleys, Darryl Zanuck, and Drew Berkowitz (probable new top man at NBC)
—that George, the sommelier, said, "We ought to charge extra for the floor show."

TAFFY TUTTLE can't understand why mothers cry at weddings—after nagging their daughters year after year to land some guy . . . Lots of girls in "Bells Are Ringing" are rooting for curly-haired Sidney Chaplin, who acts interested in Judy Holliday.

The ex-beau of Joan Collins and Elsa Martinelli will be the new B'way matinee idol—if Fernando Lamas isn't.

Acres Margaret Sullivan moved to our neighborhood a few months ago—and we heard of it from our butcher. We never got intimate, but we found out she was the only actress whose contract always gave her Christmas eve off—so she could be with her children.

After Don (Curfew-Shell-Not-Ring-Tonight) Larsen's no-bitter, Del Webb of the Yankees management commented, "That sets spring training back 10 years."

Voice Coach Al Segal's great love story with Bea Palmer is to be done in Hollywood by Leo Katcher who wrote the Eddy Duchin Story. (The Ethel Merman coaching episode won't be gone into, as they don't talk nowadays.)
Ben Hecht writes his massive longhand on a lapboard. "That makes it so much easier," he says, "to throw it away."

Broadway's a crazy street: A young comedian blissfully exclaimed the good news in Hanson's drug store. "My girl's got her name in Ed Sullivan's column. What a break for my girl!"
A friend said, "What was the item?" And he answered, "It said she's dating Joe Dimaggio."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

in "Farewell to Arms" opposite Jennifer Jones if David O. Sel-znick gets the money up . . . Tren-dick: Gleason 278, Como, 191 . . .
Mrs. Zane Grey, 76, widow of the author, is here plugging the CBS show . . . Pat Ballard, who wrote
"Mr. Sandman" at Troy, Pa., in 25 minutes when he had 25 cents, has a new one, "I'll Never Ask for More" . . . Friends bet that if Marianne O'Brien meets Mrs.
Jessie Donahue, she'll WANT her to marry her son Woolie.

Magda Gabor's severe but temporary illness was diagnosed as nicotine poisoning . . . George DeWitt, a brave soul had ex-wife
Claire Kelly and ex-girl friend
Vikki Duggan at El Morocco . . .
Cong. Jim Healy, whose district includes Yankee Stadium, boasts jokingly, "See all the business and publicity I brought my constituents this week!" . . . Singer Kitty Dolen of the Latin 4 has a role in the "Face in the Crowd" film.

Robt Q. Lewis says he'll have Police Comm. Kennedy on his radio show—traffic permitting . . .
Peter Arnell offered the Joe Louis as "Mr. and Mrs." TV show . . . While Jayne Mansfield's away working, boy friend Mickey Hargitay gives body-building lessons . . . Gina Lollobrigida, who'll dance in "Les Girls," said,
"I pity my dance director—I'm terrible at it." . . . Justine Parker, who used to date Prince Christian of Hanover, is the new hat-check gal at Toots Shor's.

"My Fair Lady" tickets brought up to $100 each during Series week . . .

EARL'S PEARLS . . . The average woman worries about the future till she gets a husband; the average husband never worries about it till he gets a wife.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "The best way to get along with a wife is to let her think she has her own way — and then let her have it."

TB Association Tells Supervisors Consultant's Salary Is Too Low

The Riverside County Health and Tuberculosis Association is deeply concerned for fear that the salary of $600 per month set by the board of supervisors for a tuberculosis control consultant is too low. R. B. Hampson, president of the association, informed the supervisors this week.

Hampson said it was apparent that the recommendation by a subcommittee of the hospital commission for a salary of $700 per month had been overlooked.

"We are reliably informed," he said, "that the position cannot be filled for the $600 monthly salary you now propose to offer. Unless your action is amended to meet the emergency situation which now exists, a major health problem in Riverside county will go unattended and the constructive intent of the steps you have taken to improve the tuberculosis program will be of little value."

County Supervisors Disagree on Purchasing Agent Appointment Procedure

Five of the 24 persons who applied for the position of county purchasing agent are to be interviewed by the county board of supervisors. They are the three out-of-county and two county-resident applicants who were given the highest rank, on a basis of their qualifications of education and experience, by a reviewing committee appointed by County Personnel Director Donald E. Spencer.

The reviewing committee members included the purchasing agents of the counties of Orange and San Diego, the city of San Bernardino, and other experienced purchasing officials from outside Riverside county. The appointment of such a committee from outside the county is a usual procedure, the purpose being in part to get a fair and unbiased screening of applicants.

Supervisor George Berkey said this week he believes Spencer established a good precedent in appointing the review committee and that such a procedure should be followed in filling other county vacancies when they occur.

"WE HAVE ONE of the best personnel directors in this territory," said Berkey. "He is extremely capable. But if we don't heed his advice, the time he spent in studying the best means of filling the position of purchasing agent is wasted. Also, we certainly should not question the integrity of the experienced members of the review committee. The men chosen have made a lifetime study of purchasing."

Supervisor Fred McCall suggested that each supervisor choose one of the applicants he believes the board should interview. He said he thought that would be a fairer way to name five men than to do so because of their high qualifications for the job.

Supervisor Paul Anderson who proposed that the top three out-of-county and two in-county applicants be interviewed, made a motion to that effect, his motion including a provision that the board appoint one of the five following the interview.

It was only after he dropped the appointment provision that the supervisors voted unanimously to interview the five applicants. Supervisors Warren and McCall indicated that they will not favor a choice from the five, at least not until others have been interviewed.

Supervisor William Jones said only that he would not favor appointing an out-of-county applicant.

Charm Class for Teen Age Girls At Youth Center

Teenage girls have evidenced deep interest in the course in charm and modeling being offered by Barbara Foster at the Youth Center, with 90 signed up for the first six weeks' course.

Divided into classes of 20, the girls will meet one night a week for a two-hour period. The first class is already underway, but interested girls may sign up at the Youth Center for future classes.

Mrs. Foster, who is donating her time, has been doing fashion co-ordinating in Palm Springs these past two years, helping merchants to stage style shows and providing the Barbara Foster models for the shows.

A model for Bullocks Wilshire in Los Angeles, before her marriage, Mrs. Foster is a graduate of the Dorothy Prebhel School of Modeling.

TIMING THE SKIT which they will do Sunday, when they are guest stars on Bob Hope's TV show. Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz enlist the assistance of Jan King, Hope's production secretary. Besides Lucy and Desi, Hope's other guest stars will be Diana Dorris, Jimmy Cagney and Don Larsen. (NBC Photo)

Vacation Trip Combines Fun And Business

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Purcell of 374 Pablo Drive, will have as weekend houseguests her parents Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Martin of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Beck of 1525 Tamarisk Road, had as a houseguest recently, Edward Bel-fer of CBS-TV Hollywood.

Evelyn Barrick of 1257 South Riverside Drive and her brother Harry Lawrence from Laguna Beach, recently completed a combined buying and pleasure trip in the Far East.

They flew to Honolulu for seven days and then to Manila where they saw blocks of damage still unrepaired from the last war. Flying to Hong Kong they purchased many wonderful items for their stores such as jade, ivory, brocade and teak furniture. While in Hong Kong they made a side trip to Macau and stood on the border to Red China. One of the highlights of their trip was a visit to the boat people which they made aboard a sampan.

Flying to Tokyo they travelled in many out-of-the-way places searching for screens, scrolls, lacquers, flower arrangement accessories and other articles for use in the American homes.

Other interesting visits were to the colorful Toshiyuki Festival at Nikko, cormorant fishing at Gifu and the fabulous Mikimoto pearl farm.

Relatives Are Weekend Guests

Last weekend, during the MAGIC - BAGIC convention, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore of 1955 Camino Real, had as guests their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Stotts of Burbank. Both the Stotts are employees of the Disney Studios.

Also visiting Palm Springs and dropping in on the Moores, were Misses Evelyn Neistrum and Mary K. Rothschild of Westwood Village.

Spend Anniversary In Palm Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Marks are down from Los Angeles and spending four days at LaFonda. On Thursday evening they dined at the Chi Chi and celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

The Marks operate a Beverly Hills gas station and frequent Palm Springs visitors and hope to become residents.

Guild to Meet Next Tuesday

St. Paul's Guild will meet Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank McCreedy of 1464 Vaquero Road, with Mrs. Frank Camp and Miss Hazel Gross acting as co-hostesses.

The hostesses will serve tea, coffee and dessert, and members are asked to bring their own sandwiches. After the meeting Rev. William Blonden will continue his series of inspirational talks on the Life of Christ.

Al Simpson is down from Vancouver, B.C., for a short stay at their winter home at 615 Ocotillo. The Simpsons were in Europe for two months this summer and Mrs. Simpson stayed in Vancouver with the children, who are in school.

Mrs. Murphy Elected to State Office

As the 83rd Annual convention of the Grand Chapter of California, Order of Eastern Star closed in San Francisco Wednesday night a signal honor was conferred on Palm Springs with Florence M. (Mrs. Harold) Murphy, being installed as Deputy Grand Matron of 85th District.

A capacity crowd of 10,000 filled the Civic Auditorium for the ceremony which installed Margaret Weisenheimer of Oakland as Worthy Grand Matron, and Elmer E. Walther of Los Angeles as Worthy Grand Patron.

Mrs. Murphy, whose district extends from Blythe to Beaumont, was the first Worthy Matron of Palm Springs Chapter of Eastern Star. A past president of Palm Springs Woman's Club, she is secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary of Desert Hospital and a director of Welfare and Friendly Aid.

Palm Springs at the convention included Mr. Murphy, Louis and Anita Dubin, Isabelle Magenis, Diane Philp and Lola Sherrill. Mrs. Murphy will make her first public appearance in her new role as Deputy Grand Matron, when she attends the Eastern Star installation here at the Playhouse on the evening of November 3, when Diane Philp will be installed as Worthy Matron and Harold E. Murphy as Worthy Patron. Several other Grand Officers are expected to attend.

The Murphys are expected to return from San Francisco tomorrow.

Stars in Early Vacation Crowd

Richard Greene (TV fans know him as Robin Hood) has been among the early season Racquet Club guests. Two for luncheon on Wednesday with Mrs. Buddy Adler (Anita Louise) and Marjorie Hall. Also down for a stay at the Club is Patricia Medina, who is the former Mrs. Richard Greene. Currently vacationing at the Racquet Club are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bunn of Pebble Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Fromkes, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Amsterdam and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Tuteur.

Sunday Brunch Starts Tomorrow At El Mirador

El Mirador's Kiva Room will be the mecca for the riding group and the after-church crowd tomorrow, as the popular Sunday Brunch starts again. Chef Gerhard Knaak's delightful brunch buffet and the entertainment provided by emcee Tex Kidwell compete for honors, and everyone who can get in is expected to show up for what is practically a round-up of who is in the Village.

Among those with reservations are the Tom Flemings (who have just returned from LaJolla and opened their apartment here), the Ed Robbins (just back from Reno), the Julian Bambergers (here from Salt Lake for a few weeks), the Walter Braunschweigers and their houseguests the John Colemans of Birmingham, Alabama, Mrs. Austin McManus, the Bill Reichels, Mrs. Noble Banks, Mrs. John Blish, Mrs. Gus Berg, the Earle Hendersons, Dr. and Mrs. John Costello, Frankie and Oliver Jaynes, and many more.

A quartet from Redlands University will be on the program for this first Brunch, along with the songs of Tex Kidwell.

Presbyterian Women to Meet Here Tuesday

Presbyterian women from the eastern district of the Riverside Presbytery will meet at the Community Church in Palm Springs Tuesday, October 23, at 10 a.m.

Mrs. R. S. Duvall of Banning, chairman of this district, will open the meeting. Mrs. John Speidel of Redlands, president of Riverside Presbytery, will tell of work being done by the various departments. Others on the program will be Mrs. Walter Schlack of Hemet, program chairman; Miss Mary Brown, membership chairman; and Mrs. W. T. Johnson of Riverside, representative of the world service department. Mrs. L. A. Wickens of Riverside will display organizational literature and Mrs. C. G. Mason will present the mission study for the year. Mrs. Roy R. Mathews will report on Social Education and Action.

Lunch will be served by the Martha section of the Women's Circle under the direction of Mrs. Gordon Nicholson.

Mrs. James Cavin who has just returned from a term of service in Mexico, will be the main speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Cavin was born in China, has served 10 years with her husband in Africa, and is now under appointment to Venezuela.

Hoovers Home After Summer in Cherry Valley

The Al E. Hoovers have returned from their ranch on the Mesa above Beaumont and opened their new home at 1400 Buena Vista Drive.

Dr. and Mrs. Dean Laroche Moyer (nee Dulcy Jayne Hoover) spent the weekend here and Dulcy stayed over to help get the new house in order. Dr. Moyer returned to his duties at UCLA Medical Center, where he is an instructor of Pathology. The Moyers have purchased a home in Pacific Palisades.

Their older daughter Jean, Mrs. D. J. Smock, has just returned from a vacation in Hawaii. Their son Arthur Nobbs has just returned from an inspection trip for Pan-American Airways, to New York and Miami, and will join them here for this weekend.

Carrot and Raisins

Add new sparkle to that old favorite, carrot and raisin salad. Blend cream cheese, pineapple juice and mayonnaise. Then mix with grated carrots and seedless raisins. Serve on crisp leaves of iceberg lettuce.

Annual Spaghetti Dinner Expected to Draw Crowd

The whole town is coming—or a great section thereof—to the Italian dinner given by the Parent-Teachers Group next Thursday, October 25. The festivities, with Italian decor, music, aroma, costumes and flavor (Doll House catering!) will begin at 6:30 and carry on through the evening.

This annual Banquet-Open House is to be held at the Katherine Finchy School, in their spacious cafeteria.

Tickets are $1.50 for adults, 85 cents for children, and entitle each guest to a delicious Italian meal prepared by Sammy, chef at the famous Doll House.

Mrs. Bernard M. Malin, general chairman, has declared "Each year we imagine that this was the largest crowd ever gathered under one roof. And then the next year, we are again surprised. It seems our party has become a kind of rendezvous for the parents of all children in the Palm Springs School District. We are prepared to handle a huge crowd and hope that the facilities will again be used to their utmost. It will be a lot of fun for everyone."

A.A.U.W. to Hear State Chairman

The Palm Springs branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its first meeting of the season, Tuesday, October 2, at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Owens, 1175 Cactus Drive at 7:45 p.m. with Mrs. Neville T. Massa, State Fellowship Chairman, as speaker. One nun and 18 married women are among the 49 recipients of 1956-57 fellowships just awarded by the A.A.U.W. A new peak of $106,250 has been reached in the awards, an increase of $20,050 over last year's stipends. Ranging from $1,500 to $3,500, this year's awards afford a striking contrast to the first one in 1890, a single fellowship of $500.

Forty-one of this year's recipients are from the United States, and there are eight international fellows, representing the Philippines, South Africa, Brazil, Norway, Argentina, England, Thailand and Israel.

Dr. Harriet Forster of Los Angeles, who is assistant professor of physics at USC, will go to the University of Rome, Italy, to do research in the field of elementary particles in cosmic rays and the decay schemes of radioactive nuclei.

UCLA has been chosen by Dr. Muriel Sandeen, assistant professor of zoology at Duke University, for her experiments to obtain techniques of neurophysiology and apply them to studies of central nervous system phenomena in invertebrate animals.

Now working at UCLA on historical research on foreign relations of the United States and Siam between 1893 and 1904, Pensri Suvani of Bangkok, Thailand, will return to Bangkok in December to take up the Far East portion of her research, using a $1,500 international fellowship from Texas division of A.A.U.W.

A.A.U.W. is not an invitational organization. Anyone eligible may become a member and may attend the meeting next Tuesday. For membership, a woman must graduate from a college or university approved by the National A.A.U.W. Committee. Women who have completed 60 units of non-professional study at an approved institution are eligible for associate membership.

Village Knights At Field Mass

Columbus Day field mass was celebrated at Indio Parochial School grounds on Sunday, sponsored by Indio Council Knights of Columbus.

Guests included members of the Palm Springs Council, Leo Cruse, Bob Rech, Richard Krings, Vernon Krings, Ray Alvarez, Fred Anson, Urban Pratt, Oscar Levert and their families.

Cocktail Party As Palm Desert Adobe Opens

Opening the Palm Desert Adobe, for their fourth year of ownership, Marilyn and Jim Harstad entertained at a smart cocktail party Friday evening, receiving around 60 guests in their new home at The Adobe.

An Italian lace tablecloth was spread on the hors d'oeuvres table and the elaborate array of canapés were prepared by Ozzie and Rosalyn, new at The Adobe this season.

Among the Harstads' guests were the Edgar Schills and George Holtsteds of Thunderbird, Ernie Boudreau of Shadow Mountain Club, Mattie and Bill Kuehn of Palm Springs, the Harrison Fishers, Pete Piersons, Dick Hanousek, Virginia and Bill Parker.

Also Edith Eddy Ward and Mrs. Bunny Ward, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Morrey, the Ben Fosters, Betty and Gene Eldridge (newcomers to Rancho Mirage), Mr. and Mrs. John Noyes of Desert Air, Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Seals, the Pat Ritchies, Percy Whitesides, Charlotte Steward, Kitty Fritzlauff, Mrs. Harold Smith of Winnipeg, Canada, mother of the hostess, Darlis and Clancy Smith (he's a brother of Mrs. Harstad), and many more.

Home on Leave

Rochelle Levert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Levert of 338 North Calle Santa Rosa, is home on leave. A United States Navy Wave, Miss Levert is stationed at the Naval Hospital at Camp Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Langford (he is city director of finance) returned this week from a three weeks vacation motor trip to Idaho to visit friends and relatives.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

Highway 111 is due for heavy traffic tonight... as both Thunderbird Country Club and Shadow Mountain Club open for the 1956-57 season... and, earlier in the evening Desert Braemar tosses an invitational cocktail party and barbecue...

that is a gesture of appreciation to all who have helped build it... As Dick Hanousek phrased it... "It's for everyone from the hod carrier to the bank president... We were running 60 days behind schedule... but have cut that in half... and this is our 'thank-you'..."

Thunderbird's opening is formal this year... and the big moon shining down on the lighted club... will spotlight pretty-as-a-picture ladies... arriving with their white jacketed escorts...

Spacious as it is, Shadow Mountain Club has limited its reservations to 400... and expects a full house... for the informal dinner dance which opens its ninth season.

Considering that these are just the extra special affairs scheduled for tonight... and that dinner dancing will be going on at all the other restaurants and clubs... underscores the amazing tempo of the early season activity that... in the Palm Springs tradition... surpasses all previous years... It's just something we have to get used to... and expect...

I hear that there's a "solid gold trailer, with definite crests," on Lot D-117 out at Blue Skies... lending some credence to the rumormongers that the Prince and Her Grace may be heading this way... Whoever will occupy it... this princely masterpiece was constructed under the personal direction of Al Rose, the Trailer King...

Dining together at the Palm Springs Ranch Club Thursday evening... were handsome English movie star Richard Greene (TV's Robin Hood)... and his ex-wife Patricia Medina...

Smoke Tree Ranch opens officially on Friday, November 2, with dinner and square dancing... and on Saturday night, November 3, there will be a steak dinner on the patio by the swimming pool... and entertainment by Johnny Boyle...

Neither the Land of Tomorrow, the Jungle Trip, or anything from the land of fantasy... will influence the design for the new house that the Walt Disneys are going to build at Smoke Tree Ranch... Like everyone else they must conform to the Smoke Tree building specifications... and after the free expression of design at Disneyland... the great artist probably doesn't have an artistic inhibition to his name... But, can't you imagine the possibilities?... Big fat lounging chairs modeled after the whirling Teacups... a rhinoceros rising and sinking in the swimming pool... a giraffe peering over the wall... a stagecoach (complete with a holdup along side one of Smoke Tree's famous bumps-in-the-road) to bring in guests from the gate... a rocket ship entrance... a Dixieland dining room... a wall telephone with recorded party-line conversations... Oh, all you Disneyland devotees can have fun with this... planning the kind of house that Walt Disney won't be building at Smoke Tree...

Gal with new ideas, is Kay Morris... With their new home on designing, by appointment only... with only one gown to a design or fabric... somewhat in the French manner... Associated with Kay will be Renee Martine...

Edith and Julian Bamberger are here from Salt Lake... and expect to spend a few weeks at their Via Lola home...

Eve and Bill Brooks are down from Vancouver... and relaxing at the Racquet Club... through next week, at least...

Mousie and Bill Powell are in Los Angeles for a few days... Mousie is hoping to be back in time to get the Mouseburgers started on the 23rd... If she doesn't make it... no Mouseburger until the following Tuesday...

Louise and Maury Horner and Tom White will be heading for Palm Springs on October 29... They can't get away from Glencoe earlier... because Maury is chairman of the Navy Day Dinner on October 27... and Louise is chairman of the ladies' committee... They are moving out of their old house (the one in Glencoe, I mean) and into the Ambassador for their interim stay there... Their new Glencoe house is coming along well, Louise writes, and they plan to move into it next May...

Farewell Tea To Honor Dr. Hunter Oct. 26

Congregation of the Community Church of Cathedral City will hold a farewell tea at 3 p.m., Friday, Oct. 26, for Dr. and Mrs. Graham Hunter, who will retire from the full-time ministry on Nov. 1.

After that time, Dr. Hunter will serve as the assistant minister of the Presbyterian Church of El Monte, on half-time. He and Mrs. Hunter plan to reside in Fullerton for the present time.

The church will hold its worship service at 11 a.m., Sunday. The Church Choir will meet from 9 to 9:30 a.m., and Sunday School, including an adult class led by Ed Dering, will be at 9:30. The Young People's Society will meet at 6:30.

Besides the Church Choir, Mary Hoover conducts the Junior Choir Wednesdays at 3:15 p.m., the Junior High Choir Wednesdays at 6:45 p.m., and the Kirk Choir Thursdays at 7:30 p.m.

Sunday School teachers will meet at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, for a training class led by Mrs. Perry Williams.

'Probation After Death' Named Science Sermon

"The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live." These words of the Apostle John (5:25) are the Golden Text and keynote of the Lesson-Sermon on "Probation after Death" in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

After passages from the Bible telling of the crucifixion of Jesus and of his triumph over the grave, these verses from the beginning of The Acts of the Apostles are given, "The former treatise have I made of all that Jesus began both to do and teach. Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen: To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God" (1:1-3).

In a correlative passage Mary Baker Eddy is quoted from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "Jesus' unchanged physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltation above all material conditions; and this exaltation explained his ascension, and revealed unmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave" (p. 46).

'Church of Open Door' to be Topic

"The Church of the Open Door" will be the sermon topic for the Morning Worship at 9:30 a.m. in the Calvary Baptist Church in Indio, corner of Highway 99 and Jackson Streets.

The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Richard A. Uzzel. Sunday School meets after the Morning Worship at 10:35 a.m.

PLANS FOR CONSTRUCTION of a $20,000,000 replica of the Holy Land at the time of Christ were announced today as representatives of the American Foundation for Preservation of Christian Heritage launched search for a 2000-acre site in Southern California on which to build the giant project—Christialand. Numerous locations in this area, because of its similarity to the weather and terrain of Palestine, already are under construction. The exact replica will include the ancient walled city of Jerusalem and the little towns of Bethlehem and Nazareth. Lawrence G. McNeil of the McNeil Construction Company, builders of Disneyland, who will be in charge of construction of Christialand, said that he is still looking for acreage that most closely duplicates the Holy Land's physical features. The Foundation announced that if a proper site for the non-denominational Christialand is located in sufficient time, the land will be dedicated this next Christmas morning by church leaders of all faiths "in honor of Christ's birth."

Double Service, Sunday School Classes Offered

For the convenience of parents wishing to attend the morning worship services at either the 9:30 or the 11 a.m. hour at the Palm Springs Community Church there are two Sunday School sessions. The first session is at 9:30 for all departments up through the Adult class, and at 11 there are classes up through the Junior Department. The Young Adult class meets at this same time with James McManus as the teacher.

At the morning worship services, Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., the pastor, will use for his sermon topic "Love Never Fails," with 1 Cor. 13:8 as the text. Elmer Young, choir director, is presenting the Chancel Choir in the anthem, "Heavenly Father" by Schubert. Mrs. Lois Lux accompanies the choir on the organ.

The Christian Endeavor meetings are held at 6:15 each Sunday evening. The Junior High Young people invite all to come and attend their football program. The High School Young People meet in the church parlor and will have a panel discussion on "How to Witness for Christ at School."

The High School girls Phi Beta Chi meeting will be held on Wednesday evening. The Boys Masters' Club will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Blackstone for a barbecue. At the close of the dinner they will have an initiation of new members and installation of new officers.

On Sunday evening at 7:30 a special program will be presented by Leoda and Allen Buckwalter. Mrs. Buckwalter is the niece of Paul Burkholder of Palm Springs. The Buckwalters have been missionaries in India for the past 14 years and are home for a year's leave of absence.

Mrs. Buckwalter was born in India of missionary parents who died there. She has been forming Bible Clubs in Upland and Ontario and is a well known Bible teacher. Mr. Buckwalter is on a radio program which is featured over KGER, Long Beach, at 12:30 on Sundays. The Buckwalters are living in Bannakhi, Bihar, India, and at the present time are translating the Bible into this language. The public is invited to attend this program.

Rally Day at the Thousand Palms Community Chapel was very successful. A bazaar is now planned for Oct. 27.

Rev. McClain To be Installed Pastor Sunday

The Rev. Warren C. McClain will be installed as pastor of the Community Church of Palm Desert in a special service at 3 p.m., Sunday, with officials of the Riverside Presbytery officiating.

Rev. McClain came to Palm Desert earlier this fall from a pastorate at Pittsburg, Calif.

The Rev. Harry Porter of Beaumont will deliver the sermon, and the Rev. Harold Hartsouth will be moderator and ask the Constitutional questions.

Other ministers who will take part in the service are the Rev. Harvey Harper of Coachella, and Dr. Graham Hunter of Cathedral City.

Following the service, the Women's Auxiliary of the church will serve refreshments.

Regular services will be conducted Sunday morning, with Sunday School at 9:25 and 11 a.m., and the worship service at 11 a.m. Rev. McClain will use as his sermon topic, "Third Dimension Living."

Polio Vaccine Injections Drop

The number of people, children and adults, receiving the full series of polio immunization injections has markedly decreased in Riverside county, it was announced by Dr. Hugh H. Martin, speaking for the local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the Poliomylitis and Crippled Children's Committee of the Riverside County Medical Association. This does not compare favorably with surrounding counties or other areas of the country.

After investigation, this committee believes that the decline in immunizations is due to fear of injections causing polio (as happened with an early batch of vaccine) and the misunderstanding that there is still a marked shortage of polio vaccine on the market.

From recent investigation by a committee appointed by the California Medical Association, it has been definitely determined that the anti-polio vaccine now being used is as safe as any vaccine can be, Dr. Martin said, and there is now an ample supply for everyone.

Holy Communion To be Celebrated Twice Sunday

Holy Communion will be celebrated at the 9:15 Family Service tomorrow, as at the 8:00 service of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church. The Children's Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Alex Hammond, will sing the Menebeke setting of the Holy Communion, and present the anthem at the time of offertory.

Holy Communion may be received by the adults and confirmed children at this service. The rector will give explanations of the Holy Communion as the worship proceeds. The service at 11 a.m. will be that of Morning Prayer, with the Rector preaching.

This evening, Saturday, the Junior High Young People's Fellowship will hold an organizational meeting in the Parish Hall, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Sponsors for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Samson. Tentative plans call for a special Junior High party one week from today, Oct. 27. All interested Junior High School young people are invited to attend tonight.

Tomorrow evening at 7 p.m. the High School Fellowship will meet in the Parish Hall. Holy Communion will be celebrated at St. Paul's in the Desert each Thursday morning at 10. Special prayers for healing will be said at these services, with the Laying on of Hands. On Thursday, Nov. 1, the United Thank Offering of the women of the church will be received at the 10 a.m. service. Also on this day, which is All Saints Day, prayers for the departed will be said at this service and at all services during the ensuing week. Persons desiring special prayers for the departed are asked to give such names to the Rector before Nov. 1.

Three hundred gallons of jet fuel are needed to taxi a current jet bomber from the runway to take-off, usually a distance of about one and one-half miles.

INDIANS BOW TO COACHELLA BY 14-7 SCORE

THREE GOAL-LINE STANDS featured outstanding defensive play by the Palm Springs Indians last night as they held the highly favored Coachella Arabs to a 14 to 7 victory. Above, Arab halfback George Sicre is stopped standing up, with Palm Springs players in abundance rushing up to put him down. At left on knees aiding with the tackle is David Lance who ran 72 yards for the Indians only score. (Desert Sun Photo).

UP AND OVER goes Coachella's great Halfback Ken Ballard, who carried a majority of times for the powerful Arab team. Note the foreward wall of blockers which preceded him on the effective end sweeps. Ballard scored both of the Arab touchdowns. (Desert Sun Photo).

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Warming up the "hot stove."

Jack Tighe, Detroit's new manager who insisted "we're in the market for deals" upon taking over the job, will prove it within the next few days when he obtains a second baseman. Second base has been the Tiger's No. 1 trouble spot ever since Charlie Gehringer hung up his spikes.

Baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., already has put in a request for the ball Don Larsen used in striking out Dale Mitchell for the final out in his perfect game masterpiece. Larsen has seen movies of the game three times now and each time he did, he says, "I got more and more nervous."

The Kansas City Athletics have made a bid for both Al Rosen and Mike Garcia but so far the Cleveland Indians have said no. "The Tigers also have sounded out the Tribe as to whether Vic Wertz can be had."

All clubs steer clear of southpaw Chuck Stobbs, Washington's 15-game winner, in the past because he was a known sufferer of asthma. Now that the condition no longer bothers him, everyone's interested again. Stobbs and second baseman Pete Runnels are the most sought after Senators at the moment.

HERE'S AN EARLY tip on a strong candidate for National League "rookie of the year" honors in 1957: The lad's name is Eddie Kasko, and those who saw him with Rochester of the International League this year, insist he will prove the St. Louis Cardinals' finest shortstop since Marty Marion.

Ernie Banks of the Cubs and Dick Groat of the Pirates both may be moved over to third base next year.

Look for Bob Scheffing, the Cubs' new manager, to bring a couple of Los Angeles players to Chicago with him. Scheffing piloted Los Angeles to a Pacific Coast league pennant this year and when he brings some of his ex-employees East, he will be following a pattern set by Pittsburgh skipper Bobby Bragan when he came to Forbes Field from Hollywood.

CINCINNATI MANAGER Birdie Tietz says Smokey Burgess has developed into the "best pinch hitter in the business" since big Johnny Mize. And speaking of the Redlegs, if they trade Ted Kluszewski this winter, Frank Robinson, the rookie sensation of the past season, will get first crack at first base.

Yankee Manager Casey Stengel, relaxing at his Glendale, Calif., home, is still being congratulated on how he "stood by" unpredictable Don Larsen all season long. "Yeah, I'm a genius," quips Casey. "Know that perfect game he pitched? Well, I didn't think about taking him out even once!"

Giambra Ready For Shot at Title With 5 Straight

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Middleweight contender Joe Giambra, whose strong finish earned a split decision over rejuvenated Gil Turner, said today, "That hard fight made me real sharp for the first time since I got out of the Army, and now I'm ready for any one, preferably the champion."

Because of Joe's fifth straight victory since his Army discharge, the 10th-ranking contender will get another television bout at Madison Square Garden in November or December, probably against Ralph Tiger Jones, number three, or Spider Webb, number 7.

Meanwhile, Turner of Philadelphia — who weighed only 150½ pounds to Giambra's 153 as he suffered his fourth straight defeat Friday night at the Garden — will fight no more middleweights, but will campaign for the welterweight 147-pound title.

Out-weighted and out-gunned, 26-year-old Gil — the 3-1 underdog whom many had considered to be "washed up" — turned in an inspired fight. He was inspired by the recent reconciliation with his wife Esther, who was at the ringside rooting for him.

Expect Decision Today on Games At Squaw Valley

SAN FRANCISCO, N.Y. — Representatives of five nations were expected to give their final stamp of approval today on Squaw Valley as the site of the 1960 winter Olympic games.

Most of the officials have already expressed approval of Squaw Valley during their extensive visit to the area, although some had reservations about the site's cross-country race facilities.

Today's meeting is the final gathering of the members in Northern California and they are expected to sum up their impressions of Squaw Valley.

Represented on the committee are Switzerland, England, France, Italy and the United States.

ALONZO, LOPES SIGN SACRAMENTO, Calif., N.Y. — Leo Alonzo, the lightweight champion of the Philippines and the Orient, has signed to fight Joey Lopes of Sacramento on Oct. 30. It was announced today by promoter Fred Pearl.

By LINDSAY NIELSON

A brilliant 72-yard run by David Lance, the Indians' newest discovery, and the constant threat by the Redmen kept the mighty Coachella Arabs in check for the entire last half of one of the finest games Palm Springs has played this year.

An outstanding defense held the rambling Arabs to two TD's. The Indian forward wall held Coachella and took over on fourth down and one or less to go, five times. Three of these were goal line stands.

COACHELLA has to be commended on the way they put a great deal of power in front of the ball carrier, who was a good percent of the time Ken Ballard.

The game was a see-saw affair for most of the time. But the Arabs held the upper hand in offense. The Indians have yet to really put on a good show with the ball.

Big Ken Ballard romped from the Indian 7-yard line to draw first blood. He also ran the conversion. So early in the second quarter, the score was 7-0, Arabs over Indians.

THEN ONCE AGAIN the Indians threatened, but one of the most costly fumbles occurred and Coachella took over. After experimenting, the Arabs discovered the Indians' main weakness, poor pass defense. So with short flat passes they again threatened and asked Ballard to do the job. With seven minutes remaining in the first half, he rammed his way to pay dirt. The kick was good and the Arabs led, with three minutes to go in the first half, 14-0.

THEN CAME the outstanding play of the game. Coachella kicked off into the arms of David Lance. Lance fumbled and momentarily was not aware of it. He then scooped up the ball and raced toward the Arab goal. He evaded three tacklers with sharp maneuvering. As the last Arab tackler failed to latch on to him, he ran all the way for the Indians only TD. Cunningham bucked over for the conversion and the score read, Palm Springs 7, Coachella 14.

ONLY ONCE in the last period did the Arabs threaten, but a perfect tackle by Dick Casey saved the day and the Indians took over. Largest crowd of the season and near a record for the local stadium watched and cheered the action.

Next week the Indians will travel to Banning where they will be rated even with the Broncos.

Landy Postpones Final Verdict on Olympic Games

MELBOURNE, Australia, N.Y. — John Landy, Australia's mile king failed to decide today whether he will compete in the Olympic games, saying he needed another week before he could make up his mind.

"My injured leg feels better," he revealed to newsmen at the Australian Olympic track and field trials. "I have done no running in two weeks. I'll train for one week and then decide my Olympic future. I'll tell the selectors in one week's time, how my leg reacts to severe training," he added.

Olympic Track Team Limbers Up at Ontario

ONTARIO, N.Y. — The United States Olympic track and field team limbered today in a practice meet at Chaffey Junior College in hopes of bettering last week's performance at Berkeley.

It was the second such meet, scheduled before the team leaves for Melbourne.

Last week most of the team turned in performances well below those displayed in the Olympic trials last June. But head coach Jim Kelly wasn't too concerned and said this was largely because the athletes had a layoff of more than three months between the trials and the Berkeley meet.

THE TEAM BEGAN training at the Los Angeles Coliseum this week and Kelly said the workouts have made a big difference in conditioning. He said most are in fine shape and will reach their peaks when the team reaches Australia.

Six men were absent today, four of them because of injuries. Quarterback Jim Lea suffered from a strained leg and another 400-meter man, J. W. Mashburn, was held out after he had a bothersome tooth removed.

High jumper Verne Wilson is having trouble with a leg and discus thrower Fortune Gordien is suffering from muscle trouble in his arm.

Kelly decided to keep all four out of the meet as a precautionary measure against further injury. However, none of the injuries were considered serious.

Two others — Horace Ashenfelter, a steelhead runner, and Ken Rasmussen, a shotputter — are training in the east and won't join the team until next week.

BECAUSE OF the absence of Lea and Mashburn, Kelly was forced to juggle his 1,600-meter relay team. He replaced them with 800-meter entrants Tom Courtney and Arnie Sowell, both of whom have turned in sparkling performances in the 400-meter distance.

But the relay problem is not critical, because each nation can submit a list of eight men for both the 400 and 1,600-meter relays, any four of whom can run.

The team will continue to train at Los Angeles next week and on Oct. 27 will hold another practice meet at Santa Ana, Calif.

MOSER, ARMSTEAL CLASH HOLLYWOOD, N.Y. — Jimmy Moser and Paul Armstead, two promising young featherweights, clash tonight in a 10-round main event at Legion Stadium.

Ike's Wishes Keep Nats in Washington

WASHINGTON, N.Y. — A touch of sentiment and the weight of President Eisenhower's wishes combined today to keep the nation's capital on the major league baseball map.

The Washington Senators will be back at the old stand next year — but with new hope that they'll show improvement at the gate as well as in the American League standings.

Club President Calvin Griffith made that clear Friday when he announced the club's five man board of directors "are very happy to be in Washington and hope we will stay here the rest of our lives."

Griffith, jubilant over the outcome of the show-down meeting, said the board had attractive offers from Los Angeles, Minneapolis, San Francisco and Louisville but added, "the most attractive was from Washington."

Actually, all the evidence indicated that the Senators had walked to the brink of a shift and then backed away in deference to the memory of Clark Griffith and the announced wish of Mr. Eisenhower.

Tenney Seeking Early Decision on Swaps Condition

CAMDEN, N. J., N.Y. — Trainer Meshach Tenney planned to confer during the weekend with veterinarians attending the injured Swaps.

Tenney said he wanted to determine as soon as possible how long the "vets" thought it would be necessary to keep the million dollar record-breaker hobbled in the sling and cast that holds his broken left hind leg off the floor and prevents his bumping it.

Tenney said the four-year-old chestnut was improving slowly.

Women Golfers Try Again to Start Play

LAWTON, Okla., N.Y. — Twenty-three of the top women golfers in the nation were to try again today to get the rain-postponed first round of the $5,000 Lawton Ladies PGA Tournament under way.

The first round had to be postponed Friday when intermittent showers fell on an already-soggy course.

While two national AAU champions and two NCAA titlists fell by the wayside in Friday night's eliminations at the Cow Palace, the Army landed four men on the squad, and the Marines and Air Force one apiece.

The Army came by its victories the hard way scoring double victories—first in the semi-finals and then the finals.

Tom Rademacher, a balding Army lieutenant from Grandview, Wash., nailed down the heavy-weight position by outpointing Harold Epsy of Idaho State after he had decimated Joe Hemphill of the Air Force in the opener.

Joe Shaw, a St. Louis building employee, won the light-welterweight shot by stopping John Granger, Massena, N. Y., and the Air Force in the second round.

RAMS, BROWNS FAVORED TO WIN SUNDAY'S GAMES

By UNITED PRESS

The Cleveland Browns and Los Angeles Rams, defending division champions who have acted like also-rans so far in the National Football League races, are favored in their Sunday games and must win to stay within hailing distance of the early leaders.

The Browns, defending league champions, are six-point choices to defeat the Redskins at Washington and boost their record to 2-2. Washington 0-3 is the only NFL team without a 1956 victory.

Los Angeles, off to a 1-2 start in defense of its Western Division title, is a three-point favorite to defeat the Green Bay Packers 1-2 at Milwaukee.

The Lions, leading the Western race with a 3-0 record, are favored over the San Francisco Forty Niners 1-2 by 7½ points at Detroit. The Chicago Cardinals lead the Eastern Division with a 3-0 mark but apparently haven't convinced the oddsmakers and their game with the Eagles 1-2 at Philadelphia is rated a toss-up.

The Chicago Bears and New York Giants, picked by many observers as the teams most likely to succeed the Rams and Browns as division champions, are the heaviest favorites in Sunday's clashes. The Bears 2-1 are 11-point choices against the Baltimore Colts 1-2 at Chicago and the Giants 2-1 are favored over the Pittsburgh Steelers 1-2 by a similar margin at New York.

All the games except the Cardinals - Eagles clash will be televised on regional networks by CBS.

For the first time this season, there will be no "space cadets" on the fields Sunday. On Thursday Bert Bell, NFL commissioner barred for the rest of the season the radios and other electronic devices five of the teams had used to pass information to their players.

Foreign Thoroughbreds to Race in Santa Anita Stakes

Stakes-winning Thoroughbreds in foreign lands will race at Santa Anita Park during the 20th winter racing meeting of 55 days, beginning Dec. 26, according to word from their respective owners.

These champions from overseas will seek to extend Santa Anita's record in which no less than 29 different stakes runnings have been won by 18 individual foreign-breds over the years, including seven runnings of the $135,000-guaranteed Santa Anita Handicap.

Actor Fred Astaire already has shipped to his California ranch for interim conditioning his brilliant 2-year-old filly, Rainbow Tie, a winner of four out of seven starts this year in England, including the St. Hugh's Stakes by four lengths in her last effort before being flown to America. Rainbow Tie, which also placed second in the Hurrey On Stakes, is by Tudor Minstrel, sire of Poodia II, winner of the 1955 Santa Anita Handicap.

ALBERTA RANCHES, LTD., through its chief partner, Max Bell, has announced that it has imported from England Hindu Wand, 4-year-old bay colt which Champion Jockey John Longden recently rode to victory in the Edinburgh Gold Cup at 1½ miles. Hindu Wand, regarded as a real threat for grass-course stakes such as the $100,000-added San Juan Capistrano Handicap at about 1½ miles next March 9, also won the Bentinek Stakes this year and the Sandringham Stakes a year ago. Last June, in the Watt Memorial Plate, Hindu Wand won by three lengths at 1½ miles, carrying an impost of 140 lbs.

N. S. McCarthy, prominent California horseman, has imported a number of Irish-breds now on the California racing scene. One of them, Windsor Serial, a 3-year-old gray colt, at first asking recently at Golden Gate Fields, was an impressive winner. Windsor Serial placed third in the Terarch Stakes in Ireland early this year and then ran in the classic Irish 2000 Guineas. Other new McCarthy Irishers are Artarsula, 4-year-old winner of the Irish Lincoln Handicap at one mile, and Serial Slipper, unraced 4-year-old by Solar Slipper.

FROM AUSTRALIA is being shipped the New Zealand-bred star, El Khobar, winner of a widely heralded match race in Sydney by six lengths. El Khobar, a 4-year-old, has won eight of his 10 starts, four out of four this year.

Trainer T. D. (Pinkie) Grimes is readying an imported 6-year-old Australian horse of stakes class, Cromis, which he expects to have ready for turf-course events. Another Australian stakes-winner, Starover, is due to be shipped to Santa Anita soon.

Troy, Huskies Battle Today For 'Prestige'

By HAL WOOD

United Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO, N.Y. — Undefeated University of Southern California and once-beaten Washington tangle today in a Pacific Coast Conference battle with the winner assured only a place in the "prestige bowl."

Both clubs are banned from the Rose Bowl, but the two teams stack up right now as the class of the West Coast—and they are not particular who goes to the Pasadena classic.

THIS IS THE FINAL battle of the year on the home field for the great Jon Arnett, one of the finest ball-packers in the proud history of Southern California. For that reason, many are hoping that it will be his greatest game.

But Washington has come up with a fine ball club — one good enough to wallop such teams as Illinois and Oregon, not to mention Idaho. The only loss was to Minnesota.

About 50,000 fans are expected to witness the tiff in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Another 50,000 will be on hand at Berkeley to watch University of California tangle with UCLA. This one figures to be so close that the breaks will decide it.

THE OTHER important games in the Pacific Coast Conference race pit Stanford against Oregon at Eugene, and Washington State vs. Oregon State at Pullman.

The Stanford team is a slight favorite to whip Oregon, due to the great passing arm of John Brodie. Oregon State is expected to turn back Washington State.

Other games include College of Pacific at Marquette and San Jose State vs. San Diego State in the border town.

MOBILE HOME PARKS

By VIRGINIA DAVIS

By VIRGINIA DAVIS

A few days more 'till Trailer Rally Week — Oct. 24 to 30, which is also "Hospitality Week" at all trailer parks for out-of-town visitors, and anything the residents of the Parks might contribute in the way of entertainment for the visitors that would add to their pleasure and happiness, would be appreciated by the Parks' management.

A one dollar ticket entitles one to all social events held in the arena at the Polo Grounds, including indoor and outdoor dancing, stage and fashion shows, hobby show and color-sound travel movies each night. Tickets are available at all Park offices.

And don't forget your Western cowboy hats. "Hat Contest" is Monday, Oct. 29, at which time prizes will be awarded for the prettiest, the funniest and most original hat.

LOVELY BARBARA BARES, a Palm Springs deb, was chosen 1956 "Queen of the Trailer Rally Show Contest" at Ramon; and when Harry Heath, Manager of Blue Skies placed the crown on Barbara's head, the large gathering was enthusiastic in their applause of approval.

The press was well represented, and as the eight Palm Springs beauties paraded around the pool, cameras clicked, and Herb Richardson, master of ceremonies and director of the Trailer Rally Show, announced the event would be widely publicized in various periodicals and magazines throughout the country, and pictures would be shown over the Jack Latham TV program on Channels 5 and 11.

Judges of the contest were Herb Richardson, Harry Heath and Gerald Thomason.

Tramview Park

Bob Hollister, manager of Tramview and also chairman of the Trailer Rally Committee, is doing double duty at this time; together with the influx of trailers, completing the remodeling of the Park and directing the many social activities. Bob says "there's never a dull moment at Tramview."

Dances are scheduled for three nights a week, with Osa Mathews as caller every Wednesday night; and Lee Mathias as caller for the Saturday night dances. This will be Lee's first appearance as regular caller at Tramview after becoming popular last season as guest caller for a few numbers.

The first Saturday night dance will be Oct. 20, when Tramview will welcome back Ward and Lillie Strickland and their orchestra. Other activities will begin the following week when there will be tramo, cards, etc.

Thursday nights throughout the season the Tramview orchestra, all volunteers from the Park, and led by Jack Dunn, will furnish the music, playing mostly old-fashioned round dance music.

Ernie Meadows will be in charge of shuffleboard, and Florence Meadows will organize the Hobby program.

Tramview has some very attractive new badges, made of plastic and monogrammed "TTP" in red and green, which may be obtained by calling at the office.

Blue Skies

Columbus Day brought many explorers through the entrance of Blue Skies Trailer Village. A number of them discovered that the adequacy, efficiency, and luxury of trailer living was beyond their comprehension.

William Cowitt, casting director of Paramount Pictures, and his wife have launched a beautiful apricot trailer on "Humphrey Bogart Road" directly across from one of his Paramount associates, Harry Caplan and Mrs. Caplan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reddell moored their little "Jewel" facing an extensive view of the clubhouse and recreational area.

Mrs. J. A. Cornelius charted the course of her new Roadcraft to Space A-2 where the aroma of her appetizing barbecues will soon fill the air. The managers of Blue Skies also welcomed back the James Hilliards, the James Metz, Colonel and Helen Hayes, the Alexander Clitsomes, the Roy Graysons, the Alban Nesbitts, the Roger Andrews, the Robert Goulds, the Bert Brooks, and Jim and Della Tennant.

Columbia Pictures adds its glamour with the new arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller who will take turns using their flashy red and white trailer with their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs.

C. O. Bruce. Mr. and Mrs. W. Peterson and daughter Judy have moved in from the great northwest. Mr. and Mrs. F. Bird and daughter, Cathy, have returned from a northern vacation. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Parkus had a wonderful trip to romantic Hawaii.

GEORGE AND LORNA Wright (with "His Majesty Ching" acting as referee) will direct the shuffle board activities this season. The Oran McLaes have opened their smart looking Pan American for the season.

Leon Gordon, whose name always appears in the Motion Picture Who's Who Almanac and his lovely wife, Georgia, and daughter, Gay, are also at Blue Skies.

Mrs. Don Hartman opened their expansive Roadliner this past week end, the W. H. Carpenters enjoyed their new 50-foot Spartan, Joe Rosenberg came in looking tanner than ever, Don Bleitz was down from Los Angeles to get things in order at their Desert Home "Donarita." Michael Hunter of Beverly Hills stopped in to see that his trailer had arrived on schedule and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Coope spent several days in their Blue Skies Landyacht before departing on an interesting cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. Erb Bloom have been at Blue Skies during the summer and are busy admiring their newly planted lawn. Claudia Magnuson, Carita Bullock, Andrew Griswold, the A. Edmonstones, the J. Diamonds, the Harry Leckys and the Al Walters join their neighbors in relaxing at Blue Skies.

The J. W. Elsworths have returned to the desert from their gorgeous home at Lake Arrowhead.

DeLuxe Park

The first meeting of the Resident's Club held Tuesday evening got quickly into action and progressed rapidly through the hour. Another meeting of the Club will be Tuesday evening, Oct. 23.

The Manager, Art Hendershot briefly outlined the purpose and objectives of the Club for the season, announcing it will include all residents of De Luxe and will be known as the "Happy Space Club," with officers and committees, appointed, who will suggest and direct the social and sports activities for the season.

Lynis Nelson was voted chairman of the barbecue and community dinners; the first one to be held Tuesday, Oct. 23. Other officers will be appointed at the next meeting.

Dancing is scheduled for three nights a week, with beginner square dance Tuesdays from 8 to 10 p.m.; children's square dance Wednesdays 7 to 9 p.m., patter and modern dance Thursday 8 to 10 p.m., and open square dance Saturdays 8 to 10 p.m.

NEXT WEEK however, there will be no Saturday night dance, as all residents of the Park are urged to attend the Saturday night dance at the Trailer Rally. This will be a big affair, with the best callers on the coast, including the renowned Fenton "Jonesey" Jones, who has called all over the country and has recorded many of the top square dance numbers.

The Spanish Class had its first meeting last week with a full quota of students. However, another class may be organized if there is a sufficient number of students interested.

The Lapidary evening Class held at the Palm Springs High School, has its full quota of students, but the afternoon class has an opening for a few more enrollments.

The Ladies' card club had its first gathering last Wednesday afternoon with a large attendance.

Sage and Sand

This attractive little Park, owned and managed by Don Kraemer, has grown so rapidly, having now but 65 spaces, that Don has plans in the making to develop 35 more spaces, making 100 in all. Also in future plans for development is a large recreation building. The pool is completed, and social activities now consist of nothuck and other dinners, and with the Recreation hall they will have their regular weekly dances.

A section is reserved for children and they are welcome. Located directly across from the Drive-In Theatre and close to a nice shopping center, this little Park is becoming very popular and is usually filled early in the season.
